Indonesia: Artists Do Theology

Millard J. Erickson

Theology is “that discipline which strives to give a coherent statement of the doctrines of the Christian faith, based primarily upon the scriptures, placed in the context of the culture in general, worded in a contemporary idiom, and related to issues of life.”

Theology Must Be

- Coherent
- in the Context of Culture
- in Contemporary Idiom
- related to Issues of Life

If this is true, what does this mean for Artists?
